

BUILD & BLOOM COLLECTIVE

The Hard Conversation Planner

One page for the conversation you have been putting off. Fill it in before you walk in.

1 The issue, in one neutral sentence

No "always," no "never," no guesses about why.

2 What I need

3 What they likely need

Their interest, not just their position.

4 My opening line

Start with the issue, not the history. Say what you want for both of you.

5 A question I will ask to check my story

6 If it gets heated, I will

A break with a return time is regulation.

7 My walk-away point

What I will do if this conversation goes nowhere.

When and where I will have this conversation

Say this instead. "You never listen to me" becomes "I don't feel like I'm getting through when we talk about this. Can we start over?"
